Meet our BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Business Development Managers (BDM) act as your direct connection to our manufacturer partners. Each BDM has a unique perspective and wealth of knowledge in their areas of expertise. Working together, they are able to create end-to-end solutions complete with high margin service options.

Constantly aware of the industry's changing trends, our BDMs are published in numerous media outlets and are highly regarded as experts in their respective specialties. Possessing industry relevant certifications, each BDM is equipped to serve you in all aspects of your business - from technical support to new service offerings and business opportunities.
